

2005 Alberta Tour Championships and Doubles

We're doing something completely different this year and playing one day at Max Bell and one day at Baker Center, both challenging courses, and made even sweeter because we're going to set up baskets. We're hoping to have all 18 baskets, so we're going to need your help... PLEASE REPLY ASAP and let us know if you can bring a basket. If we don't have enough baskets we may have to pick some other lame location.

We're having the first-ever-of-its-kind-never-seen-before-in-Alberta 1st Annual Disc Swap. "What", you say? That's right, bring in all your old plastic you don't need, or don't use, or don't like anymore. Even bring in your favourite collector's discs that you still love and are so sure that you aren't going to trade for anything. Buy, sell, swap, trade, bargain, swindle, barter, have fun. And the Brasco Brothers will be there too with their usual supply of fine disc golf merch.

Here's the format...

Saturday, Oct 01, Max Bell Arena, AB Tour Champs Singles

Divisions (need 4 players minimum): Open, Women, AM1 (Advanced), AM2 (Intermediate), Novice, Masters, More Women

- 10:00 Player's Meeting

- 10:30 Tee-off Round 1

- quick lunch with mini disc golf round

- Round 2

Sunday, Oct. 02, Baker Center, AB Doubles Champs

Divisions: Open, Advanced, Mixed

Non-lame Team Name is mandatory. Team Costumes, uniforms encouraged. Wouldn't you like to see the Rioux brothers dressed in tu-tus?

- same schedule as Saturday (easier to remember...EXCEPT that travelers will want to get out of town ASAP so today's lunch will be even quicker than yesterday's lunch, so bring a bagged lunch... and maybe no mini)

Costs will be similar to previous tournaments (except of course Wetaskiwin) and we're working on getting lunch delivered to the course at a reasonable price.

More details will follow, like course maps, directions, words of wisdom, so please check <http://members.shaw.ca/discgolf> Tour points are posted on that site as well, except for Lost Egg and Wetaskiwin, so would the TD's please forward those scores to Andrew Pickup so we can have current stats? Thanks.

REMEMBER... We're hoping to have all 18 baskets, so we're going to need your help... PLEASE CONTACT Mark at canuckiwi@telus.net to this e-mail (me) or to dannett@nortel.com ASAP and let us know if you can bring a basket. If we don't have enough baskets we may have to pick some other lame location.

Why not make it easy on yourself right now and reply right now with a "YES, you can count on me to bring (at least) one basket" instead of thinking to yourself, "Yeah, I better remember to let them know", and then a day or two later going through the agony of trying to remember, "Hmmm, did I let them know that I'm a top-notch guy who can be counted on when needed and reply straight-away that I could bring (at least) one basket, or did I tell myself to not forget to do that later as was NOT suggested in that well-written e-mail explaining to me what I should do to avoid this very agonizing thing that I'm now going through?"
